Senator Fitzgerald Statement on Voter ID Victory

[Madison, WI] This morning, the U.S. Supreme court refused to hear a challenge to Wisconsin's Voter ID law, clearing the way for the law to be implemented for future elections. Senator Scott Fitzgerald (R-Juneau) released the following statement:

"I am thrilled that today's ruling from the Supreme Court has finally put an end to the protracted legal battle which has stalled this legislation in Wisconsin for far too long.

Wisconsin's Voter ID law has been proven constitutional yet again, and I thank my Senate colleagues for remaining steadfast throughout this process and standing firmly behind legislation which will protect the integrity of Wisconsin's elections.

Today's decision is a great victory for proponents of Voter ID and for the State of Wisconsin."

Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald (R-Juneau) represent the 13th Senate District, which covers portions of Dodge, Jefferson, Waukesha, Washington, Dane, and Columbia counties.
